

Wellness Council of America

WELCOA's Well City Proclamation

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Whereas the health and well-being of Milwaukee's working men and women, their spouses, and dependents matters greatly; and

Whereas healthcare cost containment among Milwaukee's corporations and organizations is of the utmost priority;

The Wellness Council of America hereby decrees that the city of Milwaukee has been designated as a Silver Well City on this 18th day of March 2010.

With this designation, the city of Milwaukee has distinguished itself as one of the healthiest cities in America. By engaging organizations that employ more than 30% of the city's working population, Milwaukee's business, health, and civic leaders have taken significant measures to protect the health and well-being of the working people of Milwaukee as well as striving to contain ever escalating healthcare costs.

On behalf of the WELCOA Board of Directors, please accept our warmest congratulations and our heartfelt thanks for your energy, enthusiasm, and commitment in distinguishing the city of Milwaukee as one of the premier communities in the United States.

David Hunnicutt, PhD
President